A LAWYER ON TRIAL.

Howell Titus Charged With Fraudulently Obtaining Money.

Attorney Howell Titus was put on trial vesterday in Criminal Court No. 2 on a charge of receiving money under false pretences. The prosecuting witness is Marvin G. Sperry, of Philadelphia, who blmself is under indictment for a similar offence.

Sperry was arrested in this city last June and charged with passing worthless checks for different amounts on local merchants. When called to answer in the Police Court he was represented by Attorney Titus. Sperry was held for the action of the grand jury and as he was unable at the time to furnish bond was committed to Jall. One of the checks which Sperry was accused of passing was for 15. In his testimony yesterday he stated that Attorney Titus visited him at the Jall and informed him that if he would raise $15 to settle or redeem this check the person who cashed it would withdraw his prosecution and then he. Titus, would secure the release of Sperry from Jall.

Sperry testified that he "had $15, which he always carried in his hat." This, he said, he gave to his attorney, but afterward he learned that the money was not used as he was led to believe it would be. The testimony of Sperry was interrupted by the calling of Wilkinson A. Call, for-

The testimony of Sperry was interrupted by the calling of Wilkinson A. Call, formerly United States Senator from Florida, who gave evidence as to Titus' good character. The witness was called out of the regular order to allow him to leave the city at 4 p. m. for the Soath.

At the conclusion of Mr. Call's testimony Sperry was recalled to the witness stand, the house of the addornment of
